

END OF KS1 EXPECTATIONS FOR MFL

KS2	Vocabulary and Opinions	Manipulating Language	Accuracy in Grammar and Spelling
Working at expected level	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• You can recognise single words (basic vocabulary) and familiar short phrases with support from audio.</li><li>• You can say a word when you see a picture.</li><li>• You can give oral answers to simple questions with support using key vocabulary.</li><li>• You can match familiar words and short phrases from written texts to pictures or English with support.</li><li>• You can recognise and respond to single written words.</li><li>• You can choose some correct words to label items.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• You can understand and respond to single words (basic vocabulary) and familiar short phrases with support from audio.</li><li>• You can give oral answers to simple questions with support using key language and structure.</li><li>• You can recognise and respond to single written words.</li><li>• You can choose some correct language structures and write them accurately.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• You can recognise single words (basic vocabulary) from audio and record them with accurate spelling.</li><li>• You can give accurate oral answers to simple questions with support.</li><li>• You can recognise single words (basic vocabulary) from written texts and record them with accurate spelling.</li><li>• You can copy familiar words with accurate spelling and grammar.</li><li>• You can copy familiar short phrases with accurate spelling and grammar.</li></ul>